

AMI Radio Group in Pittsburg, Kansas is looking for its next Farm and Ranch director. You would be the face of the ag program on our heritage 10,000 watt 860 KKOW-AM with a FM translator. This position requires experience, and lifestyle within the Farm and Ranch industry. We are looking for the right person to bring our Ag and outdoor coverage to the modern era. This is more than reading commodity numbers. You will be a part of the farm and ranch community and spend time with Agri business leaders. We want you fully connected to the people that need and want the information and service we provide on air and online. Send your resume, a recent on-air sample, and your vision for a great farm and ranch program to Steve Kelly: skelly@ami-pittsburg.com.
