

National professional member association serving agricultural broadcast media industry seeks immediate placement of an Events Manager. Ideal candidates will have proven events coordination/management skills, a high level of attention to detail, familiarity with or understanding of agriculture, proficiency in selling sponsorships and other event-based packages, and the ability to thrive as member of a small, inter-dependent staff. Only candidates with proven professional experience in event and trade-show coordination will be considered. Position at association headquarters office in Platte City, Missouri.

Click here to apply: <https://nafb.com/careers>

#