

RFD-TV has an immediate opportunity for an agricultural meteorologist who is able to present the weather on television in a manner that engages our audience and explains present and future conditions from an agricultural perspective. Extra consideration will be given to candidates who have experience as a proven news anchor. All applicants must provide a link to a reel showcasing their recent work.

Key Duties:

- Provide live-to-air weather reports for Market Day Report and Rural Evening News
- Present weather information in a clear and unambiguous manner
- Relate weather conditions, systems, and forecasts to the specific needs and interests of farmers and ranchers
- Correlate weather to seasonal events, e.g. planting, harvest, etc.

Candidates with news anchor experience would also:

- Anchor RFD-TV's coverage of agricultural news – including crop conditions, legislative policy, commodities markets, and rural lifestyle
- Report breaking news live and unscripted, with clean delivery and stellar mental organization
- Write and copy-edit scripts
- Excellent people skills; a bona fide team player, working collaboratively with editorial and technical teams

Requirements:

- Graduate from a program in Agricultural Meteorology
- Excellent presentation skills
- Prior experience with Weather Systems for Television
- Bachelor's degree in Agriculture, Journalism, Media, Communications, or other related fields

About RFD-TV:

- RFD-TV is the only television network in the United States devoted entirely to serving Rural America while striving to reconnect City and Country.
- We produce nearly 30 hours of news programming each week, in addition to countless special programs. Our program lineup consists of a mix of news, entertainment, rural lifestyle, and equine programming tailored to the unique appetites of the network's loyal constituency.
- The network occupies state-of-the-art production facilities and offices in one of Nashville's best locations, famed Music Row.

Job Type: Full-time
