

The Ag Information Network of the West is expanding our reach and thus in need of some talented news reporters. The Ag Information Network of the West is the largest Agribusiness news network in the Western US with 90 Affiliate radio stations. We are based in South Central Washington in the beautiful Walla Walla valley surrounded by Vineyards, Orchards, Wheat, and Alfalfa Hay Fields with a strong western cattlemen/cowboy culture. The mighty Columbia and Snake rivers are to the North of us and the beautiful Blue mountains to the South. A mild climate makes it ideal for recreation with hunting, fishing, skiing and golf all close by. If you are looking for a lifestyle change this is the place for you.

What we are looking for are individuals who can Educate, Entertain, and Enlighten our listening audience, which is comprised of Farmers, Ranchers and the all-important "Influencers" (those who sell and service the agribusiness community). We don't do "rip and read" reporting we interview the newsmakers and bring their stories and information to the airwaves via short 90 second daily programming.

Compensation for services is based on individuals experience and abilities. We are looking for full time and part time employees.
