

Allen Media and the Ag Information Network of the West is growing and looking for a Full Time and also a Part Time Agribusiness and natural resource news reporter. We are looking for individuals who can interview, script and produce daily 90 second news programming. We offer the ability to work from your home, if desired, with a flexible work schedule. The right person needs to be a team player, self-motivated individual with a passion for seeking out thought-provoking news stories.
